Meet Angus and Peaches, a delightful bonded pair looking for a loving forever home together! Peaches and Angus have lived in a confined area all their lives with Angus as a breeding dog. Until they came to us they had never met another dog or been inside a house. They have been a delight to watch as they take in all the experiences in their new world.

Peaches is a very friendly and extroverted girl who loves everyone she meets. While she's not fully house trained yet, she's making great progress and only has the very occasional accident indoors. Peaches enjoys the freedom of doors being open and gets along well with other dogs, although...
