Hey there, my name is Holly and I am the sweetest, most affectionate young lady! I can't wait to meet forever family – will you it be you?

I am 2 1/2 years old and a great family dog... I love humans more than anything! I REALLY love nothing more than being close to you at all times! The more affection the better, and I will give it all right back to you!?I also like daily walks, playing outside and going in the car (I get very excited when I'm going on an adventure with you)?I have lovely manners – I will sit, stay, drop and paw and will wait for my food. I am not a guts at all when it comes to food, and am more motivated by love than by food.?I have also been been toilet trained, which is great because I prefer to be inside with my new family so I can cuddle up to them on the couch, give lots of kisses and get belly rubs.

It would be better if I were an only dog in the family home, although I play well with other dogs big and small outside of the family house. If you think you could add me to your family (and deal with all of my affection and love), I would love to meet...
