MOONEE BEACH, NSW

☐ Sophie is a fun loving and active young girl who loves every human she meets. She has settled in well into foster care, she enjoys playing with and destroying all her toys. She has not shown to be destructive around the house when her human is home. After a day of play she is super cuddly & flops down and nuzzles into you.

Sophie knows how to sit & comes when called around the house. She is working on her toilet training and basic manners. Sophie walks well on lead and is good at checking in, she is very excited & eager to greet dogs walking past. She does jump up to greet people which can be annoying for young children so she may be best suited to a home without young children or with older children. She needs a home that is committed to teaching her manners.

Sophie is looking for an active home that can provide daily exercise & ongoing training. She is...
