Elmo

KELPIE
Christie Downs, SA

Hi, my name is Elmo, I'm a typical playful puppy who is full of energy. I love to play fight with my brother, chew toys and pounce around the place. I am crate trained and while not a total fan of it I will sleep in there at night.

Toilet training is pretty good there has been the occasional accident. Further training is highly recommended especially with obedience, while I am a smart boy and love my food this should come pretty easy. The world is at my paws, I'm just looking for someone to guide me along the way.

I been living with my 2 older foster siblings who have been showing me the way of the world, there's also some cats but my foster mum says I need supervision because of my puppy nature.

As I am still a puppy, I'm still learning the basics and with your help and bonding we can master it...
