Meet Limpet: Your Tiny, Cuddly Shadow!

Bringing together the best of both breeds (Dachshund x French Bulldog) in one heart-melting little package, Limpet is the perfect mix of playful, affectionate, and just the right amount of sass. She got her name because she loves to be close to her humans whenever she can—though she's already learning to be more independent (well, mostly—she still thinks bathroom breaks should be a team activity!).

This clever pup is a fast learner and has already mastered the doggy door like a pro. She adores playing fetch, zooming around with her doggy pals, and then immediately crashing into a deep, adorable nap. Limpet is full of classic puppy energy but isn't high maintenance—give her a little playtime, and she's more than happy to curl up for a Netflix binge session with...
